Accessing Talent: Is Your Business on Track?

Is your business ready to respond to the needs and cultural values of diverse populations? The Diversity Is Good Business program supports the growing diversity of small and medium-sized businesses ("SMEs"). It does this by providing information, tools and resources that build essential diversity management skills in the SME workplace.

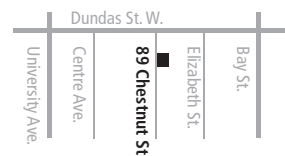

At our upcoming panel discussion, learn from the recruitment and hiring expertise of a seasoned group of panelists from SMEs. They will share their experiences and wisdom on devising recruitment and hiring practices that best tap the creative and entrepreneurial talent resident across diverse and often untraditional markets.
